VERTICAL REVEAL

Defined by elegant vertical lines and thick architectural frames, our Vertical Reveal Doors create a refined rhythm across the wall. Their strong proportions and flawless detailing bring sophistication to modern interiors, turning a functional element into a statement of design.

Elegance

Pure lines, refined frames, and a seamless integration with the wall. These doors embody elegance and slickness, and sophistication.

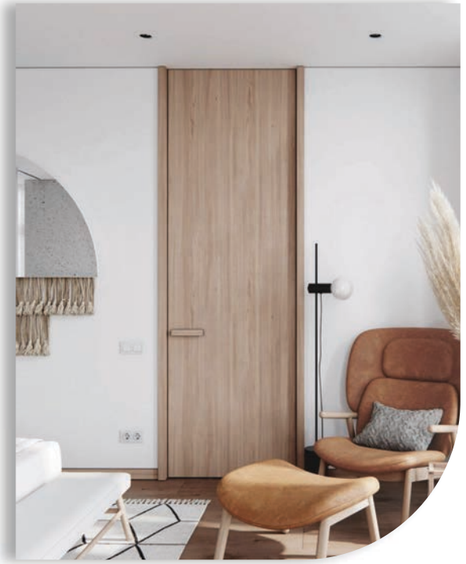

Architectural Architraves

Defined by substantial architraves that embrace the full wall thickness, these doors deliver both presence and refinement.

Vertical Flexibility

Designed to extend vertically with elegance, these doors incorporate a fixed panel above the leaf to achieve a full-height look.

Modern/Contemporary Design

Contemporary aesthetic while maintaining a sense of warmth and balance. Clean lines and modern proportions meet the natural beauty of wood, creating interiors that feel both sophisticated and inviting.

Modern

Modern Doors Collection

Our Modern Collection brings together three distinct styles that reinterpret the door as both a functional element and a refined design feature. Whether outlined with bold architraves, defined by precise shadow lines, or blending seamlessly into the wall, each style offers a unique way to shape space. Together, they represent the essence of modern interiors: clean geometry, timeless proportion, and a balance between elegance and practicality.

[3] PURE FRAME

[1] Architrave Frame Doors

Classic meets modern — doors defined by bold architrave frames that highlight the opening with presence. The framing detail adds character and depth, creating a refined architectural statement.

“Framed elegance with modern proportion.”

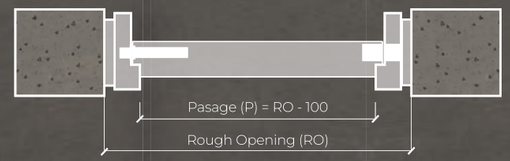

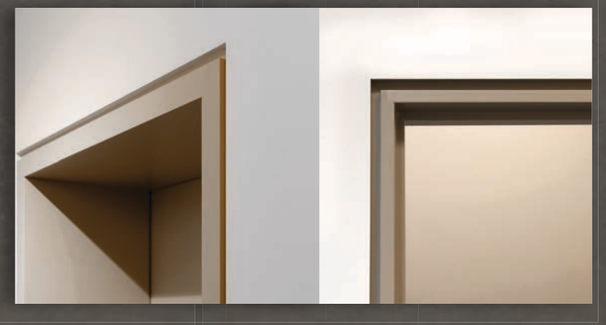

[2] Frame Reveal Doors

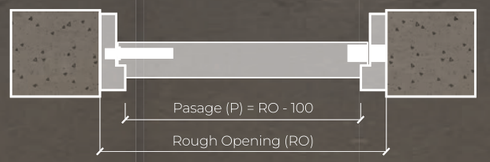

Classic meets modern — doors defined by bold architrave frames that highlight the opening with presence. The framing detail adds character and depth, creating a refined architectural statement.
“Minimal lines. Maximum refinement.”

[3] Pure Frame Doors

Pure simplicity — flush doors without architraves, blending seamlessly into the wall. Perfect for contemporary interiors where continuity, discretion, and modern warmth are key.
“Seamless design for a pure modern look.”
